Terms and Conditions for adding a BBVA Card to Apple Pay

These terms and conditions govern the function of adding a card issued by BBVA, of which the Customer is the holder, in the Apple Pay application, so that they can make payments with the aforementioned card from their mobile device.

1. What does the function of adding a BBVA card to Apple Pay consist of?

This function allows you to add one or more BBVA cards to Apple Pay and deactivate them.

BBVA Cards are considered to be those issued by BBVA, of which the Customer is the holder, and can be added to Apple Pay.

To use this function, you must have installed and updated the Apple Wallet application.

2. How does it work?

A BBVA Card can be added directly from the Apple Wallet application by following the instructions provided from time to time.

Whenever you want to add a BBVA card to Apple Pay, you must accept these Terms and Conditions; after that, you will be able to add the BBVA card(s) in Apple Pay. The user can request the deactivation of any BBVA card in Apple Pay at any time through the Apple Wallet application.

In the event that the agreement between BBVA and Apple Pay expires, BBVA will notify the BBVA
